OUTSTANDING ALUMNUS 2021

Angela Jones-Fitzpatrick

Mrs. Angela Jones-Fitzpatrick is a native of Marshall, Texas. She is the daughter of the late, Wiley College Alumna, Barbara Anderson Marshall and the late Winifred Jones, Sr. She has been blessed to share her life with her husband, Curtis, for nineteen years and together they have four children: sons, Jayden and Kameron, and daughters, Ariel and Taylor, who are both Wiley College Alumna. She received her BA in Criminal Justice in 1999 from Wiley College and a Master of Education in 2010 from LeTourneau University. Angela has worked in the Criminal Justice System, Politics and her most fulfilling career in Education for the past sixteen years, with the last nine years as a principal in Marshall ISD. While at Wiley College she was a member of the Wiley College A Cappella Choir, the Cheerleading Squad, Pre-Alumni Council, Student Government Association, Criminal Justice Club and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Phi Chapter. She is an active member of the Nu Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., the Wiley College National Alumni Association, Delta Kappa Gamma Society and many more. Angela is whole-heartedly committed to making a difference by inspiring others to find their joy and preparing our young and old of today to confidently embrace their tomorrows.

Currently, Angela serves the Wiley College National Alumni Association, Inc. as the Financial Secretary.
